

Media Statement

Broward County Public Schools is conducting a thorough analysis and legal review of the arbitration ruling issued after the close of the school year. This is a developing process involving complicated issues. Once the review and analysis are completed, the District will provide all stakeholders with information regarding the ruling's impact. Any changes to school schedules necessitate involvement with the Broward Teachers Union. At this time, there are no changes to current schedules.